SAFETY, WITHDRAWALS & TRANSPORT

RACE CONTROL — +32 471 20 36 21

Save this number in your phone before the start.

NEED HELP ON THE COURSE?

If you have a problem or witness an accident, contact Race Control or alert a volunteer so the organisers can coordinate assistance.

When calling, state:

- Your race number.
- Your exact location: aid station, HELP STATION number or GPS position.
- The nature of the problem and the number of people involved.

Answer Race Control's questions and follow their instructions. Keep your phone accessible so you can be called back.

In a life-threatening emergency, call 112 directly. We strongly recommend downloading and using the "112" app so emergency services can locate you quickly.

NEED TO WITHDRAW?

You must report every withdrawal to the organisers, even if you return by your own means.

If you are able to move, go to an aid station (R) or HELP STATION (H) on a road. Alert a volunteer and text Race Control to report your withdrawal.

Your text message must include:

- Your race number.
- Where you are withdrawing.
- Your return arrangements: transport requested or returning by your own means.

Example:
"Race number 245 — withdrawing at R2 — returning by my own means."
If you cannot reach an assistance point, contact Race Control and give your location.

TRANSPORT BACK TO OVIFAT

Runners who withdraw can be transported back to the race base in Ovifat from points accessible to vehicles.

Return transport depends on vehicle availability and demand. Pick-up is not immediate: you may have to wait. Follow the volunteers' instructions and wait at the agreed location.

Thank you to Groupe Schyns for providing the vehicles.

WHILE YOU WAIT

Protect yourself from cold and rain. Use extra clothing and your survival blanket if needed. Tell Race Control if your condition worsens.

FOLLOW YOUR RACE WITH LIVIOLIVE

Live coverage will be available for all distances. To share your position on the map during the race, GPS tracking must be activated in the app.

livio
LIVE TRACKING & RESULTS

GT80: GPS TRACKING MANDATORY

For GT80 runners, installing the Livio app and activating GPS tracking are mandatory and free of charge.

You will receive a code and instructions to activate tracking. This allows the organisers to follow your progress and may help locate you if there is a problem. Your supporters can also follow you on the map.

Before the start:

- Install and configure the app using the instructions provided.
- Allow location access and background operation.
- Activate tracking and keep your phone with you throughout the race.
- Start with a charged phone and enough battery life for the race.

OTHER DISTANCES: GPS TRACKING OPTIONAL

Live race coverage for GT65, GT50, GT35, GT22 and GT16 is available on LivioLive.
If you want your supporters to follow your position on the map, you can activate individual GPS tracking in the app.
Price: €5.95 for one activation, valid for this event. Once activated, your supporters can follow you free of charge.

FOR YOUR SUPPORTERS

LivioLive helps you follow the race and find your runner once they have activated GPS tracking.
Please note: live tracking does not grant access to areas closed to spectators. Read and follow the access instructions in this roadbook.

IF THERE IS A PROBLEM

GPS tracking depends on network coverage and phone battery life, among other things. It does not replace a call for help or the mandatory reporting of a withdrawal.
If there is a problem, contact Race Control: do not wait for the organisers to notice you have stopped on the map.

SPECTATORS & SUPPORTERS

WHERE TO WATCH THE RUNNERS

Your presence gives runners a boost! To let everyone cheer safely, please strictly follow the access and parking rules below.

CARRIÈRE NELLES — SPECTATOR ACCESS ON FOOT ONLY
Supporters' vehicles are prohibited on Route de la Vallée. A police order reserves access for residents, campsite users and the organisers. A volunteer will check access.
To reach this aid station, park in permitted spaces in the centre of Bévercé, then walk to the site: approximately 2 km.

No supporters' vehicles will be allowed through, even just to drop someone off.

HOCKAI — SPECTATORS WELCOME
The aid station is on a dangerous bend. Pay particular attention to traffic: stay off the road and do not park on the bend or anywhere that reduces visibility.

MOVIEMILLS — SPECTATORS WELCOME
A large car park is available for supporters. Use the designated spaces and keep runners' routes and access for organisers and emergency services clear.

ROBERTVILLE — SPECTATORS WELCOME, PARKING RESTRICTED
Parking in the chalet and aid station car park is prohibited.
You may park on the left-hand side of the road when coming from Malmedy, near the aid station, only where permitted and as directed on site.
The traffic lights make this a particularly sensitive area. Do not obstruct traffic or access. Police will be present: follow their instructions and those of the volunteers.

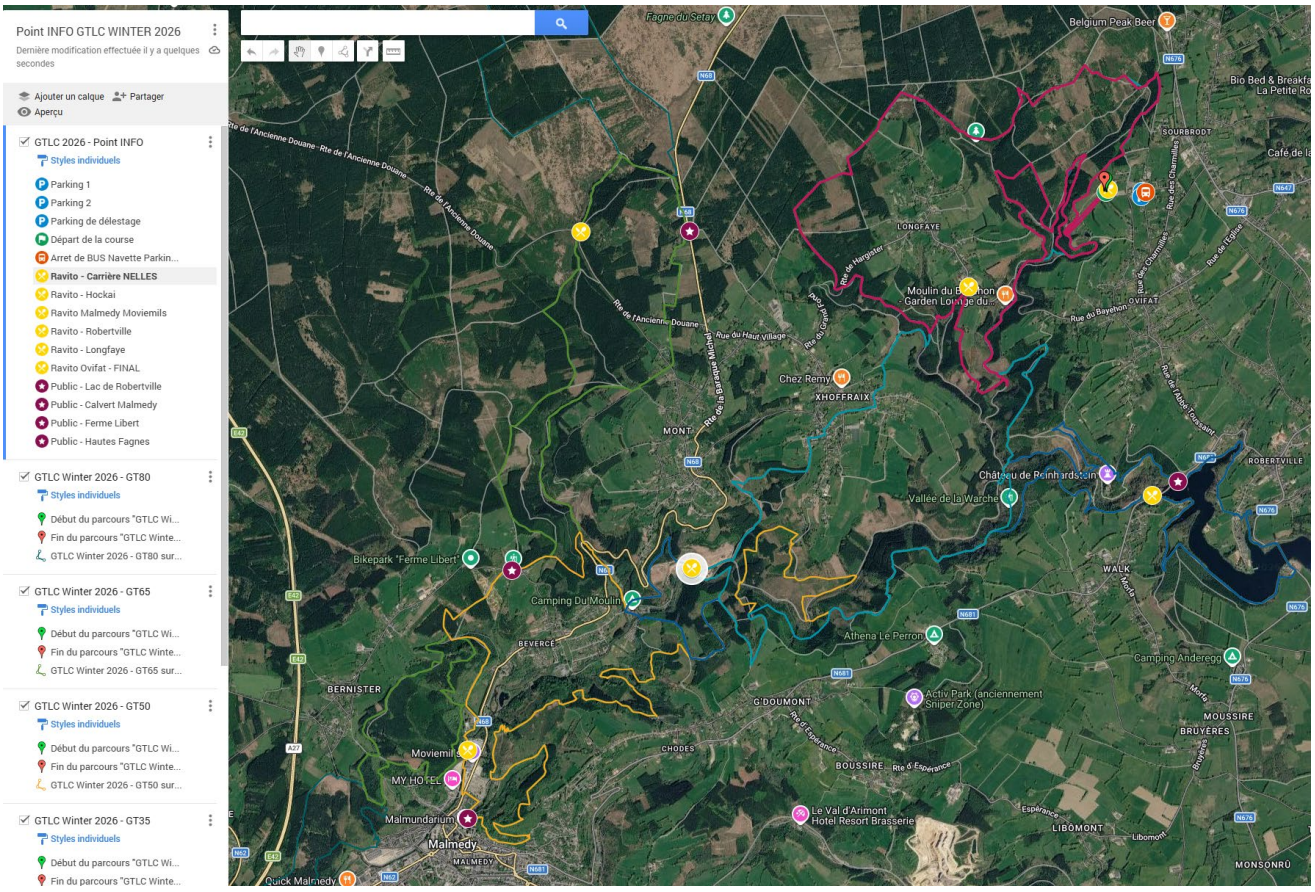

LONGFAYE — PRIVATE PROPERTY, LIMITED ACCESS
The aid station is in a private courtyard, accessible to spectators on foot. Please respect the property and leave room for runners to pass.
The lane is closed to supporters' vehicles. Do not enter it or park at its entrance.
You may park along the road only where permitted, without obstructing traffic or residents' access, then walk to the aid station.

RESPECTING THESE PLACES PROTECTS GTLC'S FUTURE
These rules protect runners, spectators and residents. Obstructive parking and ignoring access restrictions make it harder to obtain permits for future editions.

Help us keep GTLC welcome in these villages: respect the places, volunteers and police instructions.

Use our interactive map to find the different race routes, aid stations, car parks and spectator access points.

WAYMARKING & ROUTES

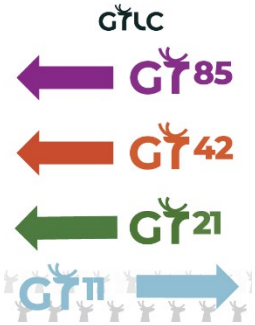

FOLLOW THE MARKERS FOR YOUR RACE

New direction signs!

Our arrows are much larger and orange.

GTLC Winter routes are marked throughout. Pay particular attention at junctions, where different distances may split.
At every change of direction, check that you are following the signs for your race.

THE GPX TRACK

We recommend downloading your race's GPX track and loading it onto your watch or smartphone before the start. It can help if you are unsure of the route or a marker has been moved.

GT65	GT65 GPX track
GT50	GT50 GPX track
GT35	GT35 GPX track
GT22	GT22 GPX track

Some sections cross private property. These sections may only be accessed as part of the race.

ON ROADS AND AT CROSSINGS
Watch out for traffic, obey the highway code and follow the instructions of marshals and volunteers.

AID STATIONS & CUT-OFF TIMES

AID STATIONS

Aid stations are provided along the routes. You will find:

- Cold and hot drinks, depending on the location.
- Standard savoury and sweet snacks.
- Fruit and a few treats.

The number and location of aid stations depend on your distance. Find them on your race sheet and the interactive map.

VIEW THE AID STATION MAP

BRING YOUR CUP

A reusable cup is mandatory for all distances. Bring it with you to use at the aid stations.

No cups are provided at aid stations.
You must bring your own reusable cup of at least 15 cl!

YOUR OWN NUTRITION

Aid stations offer standard food, but no specialist sports nutrition such as gels or sports energy drinks.
If you follow a specific nutrition plan, bring your own products, preferably those you use in training. Adapt your water supply to your needs, the weather and the distance to the next aid station.

CUT-OFF TIMES

Cut-off times apply on the relevant routes to ensure runners' safety and allow teams to continue their work in suitable conditions.

The stated time is the latest time you must leave the aid station, not the time you must arrive there.
If you cannot leave before the cut-off, volunteers will stop you and explain how to return to Ovifat.
Check your race sheet for the cut-off times that apply to your distance.

RACE RULES & RESPECT FOR THE ROUTE

YOUR RACE NUMBER

Wear your race number on the front of your chest or abdomen, fully visible throughout the race.

PERSONAL ASSISTANCE

Personal assistance is only permitted near aid stations, within 50 metres before and 50 metres after them.
Outside these areas, individual resupply is prohibited. Supporters must also follow the spectator access rules.
Supporters may not enter enclosed aid station areas.

RESPECT THE ROUTE

The routes pass through natural areas, villages and private property. Stay on the marked route, respect the surroundings and leave no litter.

ROADS & MARSHALS

Obey the highway code and watch out for traffic, especially at crossings. Follow instructions from marshals, volunteers and the police.

VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers welcome you, guide you and help keep you safe all weekend. A smile, a thank-you and respect for their instructions help the race run smoothly!

START BRIEFING

A briefing takes place 15 minutes before each start, covering the latest information and important instructions for your race.
Be there and listen carefully to the organisers' announcements.

By registering for GTLC Winter, you agree to read and comply with the event rules.
